Minimum Age to Serve Alcohol by State (On-Premises Consumption)

Minimum Age to Serve Alcohol by State (Off-Premises Consumption)

The state-specific age restrictions for selling alcohol for off-premises consumption at licensed establishments or liquor stores are outlined below. However, in some states, employees as young as 16 years of age who work at grocery stores, drug stores and other retail locations may be allowed to sell beer and wine for off-site consumption.

